TUVdotCOM is a free global certification database, accessible to the public through the web address, www.tuvdotcom.com. Here, a preliminary view of thousands of active TÜVRheinland® issued certifications pertaining to the safety and quality of services and products, are searchable 24/7/365.

Premium Solution

Gaining market share, reducing unnecessary risk and expenditure, and simplifying the world of compliance is all possible with the TUVdotCOM menu of services.

TUVdotCOM's basic functions are FREE and include an impressive line of benefits.

The upgrade option combines basic services and premium benefits to create a comprehensive business tool customized to specific needs.

Conformity & Delivery

TUVdotCOM results in quicker "to market" times in comparison to those relying on snail mail or the personal handling of critical documents.

Most often proof of compliance is required before proceeding through the channels of distribution. TUVdotCOM's globally recognized mark provides a secure information portal to verifiable and up-to-date product information with immediacy, accuracy and ease.

Management & Organization

Data managed through TUVdotCOM Premium reduces in-house expenditure and restrictions. TÜVRheinland® locally monitors recently issued certificates and prepares them for posting as quickly as they are processed. Certificates, test reports, marketing information and compliance documentation, from TÜVRheinland® and competing agencies are welcomed subject matter.

Protect Your Business

For industries highly competitive in nature, secrecy is imperative. Company information can be protected at many levels. TUVdotCOM's security features offer the utmost privacy and present the strictest accessibility and viewing options to ID holders.

Additionally, pin code protection allows unique pass code creation for individual documents and collateral groupings. Consult with a local TUVdotCOM expert for a customized security plan.

Discover New Markets

The TUVdotCOM logo makes a weighted, worldwide statement, fostering international as well as domestic relationships. When goods and services look beyond the border, TUVdotCOM is the gatekeeper. Maximize the benefits associated with TUVdotCOM's global allure, and market Quality-Approved with the independent TUVdotCOM Mark.

Sales Advantage

The TUVdotCOM mark and logo acts as a road map for consumers, vendors, and distributors. Unique ID's marked on products, packaging, and promotional material have the option to highlight distinct attributes which have been proven through the certification process. The competitive advantage is seen at the point of sale, where claims are substantiated by a recognized neutral third party.

Total Convenience

User friendly and translated in over a dozen languages, TUVdotCOM is the key to communicating the value of products and services to markets around the world. The secure user login feature makes the maintenance of an ID's content quick and easy, and with TÜVRheinland® offices around the globe, local services can be accessed for added convenience and support.
