Certification of Master Graduates for Internationally Recognized Distance Learning University

The Spanish International University of La Rioja (UNIR) added TÜV Rheinland Personnel Certification on their curriculum to provide its Integrated Management Systems Master graduates globally recognized professional credentials according to international standards.

Basic Facts

Client	Universidad Internacional de La Rioja (UNIR)
Timeframe	November 2014 – ongoing
Project Location	Spain & South America
Main Services	Internal Auditor Personnel Certification
Standards	ISO 9001, ISO 14001, OHSAS 18001 (ISO 4500:2018) and RCS 21

INITIAL SITUATION, REQUIREMENTS

New graduates entering the global workforce must be equipped to compete with each other as well as seasoned professionals already working in the industry. Headquartered in Logroño with satellites in Mexico, Colombia, Ecuador and Peru, private Spanish International University of La Rioja (UNIR) provides distance learning and online education to a global student body.

Committed to providing students the excellent education and practical professional tools needed to succeed in the competitive global job market, UNIR sought a prestigious and recognized partner to significantly impact their brand

BENEFITS FOR THE CLIENT

Our customized Personnel Certifications fortify the academic curriculums of traditional and distance learning institutions, adding brand value to boost faith among student consumers as well as potential employers of their degree graduates.

PersCert TÜV certification ensures:

- Examinations focused on international competence requirements to enable students to enter professional life more successfully with recognized additional qualifications near to business' needs
- Increased confidence among students, teaching and research faculty, administrative and service staff, public institutions and society in general
- Quality assurance and added value of education according to established international standards which are highly recognized in the market with industry-relevant certification of their graduates' professional skills according to international standards. They turned to TÜV Rheinland.

SOLUTIONS, RESULTS

In efforts to give their graduates a head start, UNIR introduced PersCert TÜV Personnel Certification as part of enhanced qualification services for Integrated Management System Master graduates. TÜV Rheinland currently provides UNIR graduates four Personnel Certifications demonstrating competence in required skill sets according to established standards: ISO 9001, ISO 14001, OHSAS 18001 (ISO 4500:2018) and RCS 21.

In addition to Personnel Certification, TÜV Rheinland in Spain audited training materials as well as learning methodology and issued a subsequent report that included corrective and improvement measures.

Since forging this distinguished partnership, our team has provided UNIR students internationally recognized certifications highlighting outstanding graduate-level educational content. Our customized Internal Auditor Personnel Certifications have enhanced graduate credentials and brought significant added value to the already established UNIR reputation of excellence.
