Products in contact with mucous membranes.

When it comes specifically to products which come into contact with those most sensitive of areas, namely mucous membranes, consumers would like to be sure that they are also of very high quality and really free of contaminants. Different and strict requirements are to be taken into account, depending on the materials used. With our test mark, you show that in a highly sensitive area, in addition to safety, you offer one thing above all else – Trust.

LEGAL BASIS.

All investigations take place in accordance with the applicable regulations and standards.

- (German) Product Safety Act (ProdSG)
- Further EU directives and also recommendations of the German BfR (Federal Institute for Risk Assessment)
- German Chemicals Prohibition Ordinance
- German Commodities Ordinance
- German Electrical and Electronic Equipment Act
- German Food and Feed Code (LFGB)
