Think about the hazards and controls your business needs.

Learning how to recognize hazards and risk situations, assimilating methods for assessing and prioritizing risks of injury and/or occupational disease, establishing control measures and handling risk of injuries and/or occupational disease.

Target Group
For all employees of a company according to the level of needs and knowledge (introductory, intermediate and advanced)

Duration
2 days (16 hours) - one hour training session it’s equal with 45 minutes

Content
- Legal requirements regarding the identification and assessment of risks of injury and/or occupational disease
- Terms and definitions: danger, risk of injury and/or occupational disease, dangerous situations etc.
- Identification and recognition of a hazard
- Exercises for the identification of hazards in certain cases
- Risk analysis: Methods of analysis and risk assessment
- Treating Risks: Controlling measures: hierarchy of control measures
- Exercises: Risk assessment through hazard identification, analysis and treatment of risks by the hierarchy of control measures
- Increasing professional competence and staff awareness concerning occupational health and safety and obligations regarding the safe operations of the plants

Methods
Theory: Exposure explanation, conversation, Practical: exercises, analysis of caseworks

Competences acquired
- Accumulating new data, information and knowledge in occupational health and safety
- How to recognize hazards of injury and occupational disease, classified for each component of the working system
- The possibility to estimate the risk and its treatment through effective control measures

Trainer
has high specialization and rich experience in both Adult Training and theoretical and practical activity in the field of Health and Safety

Date / City
N/A

Contact
TÜV Rheinland România SRL
103-105 Dorobanțiilor Blvd.
010561 Bucharest
Tel.: +4 021 318 88 34/ 35
Fax: +4 021 318 88 36
academia@ro.tuv.com

www.tuv.com/academy-ro