Your code of practice for work permits.

Learn how to recognize works with high risk of injury, job related hazards, and developing preventive measures to control every identified hazard. Getting used with jobs requiring work permits, and necessary steps required for working in safe conditions.

Target Group
Supervisors, team leaders, contractors and subcontractors doing work with high risk of injury

Duration
2 days (16 training hours) - one hour training session it’s equal with 45 minutes

Content
- Legal requirements which regulates the issue of work permits
- Identification of activities and working places which need work permits
- Analysis of working places and job related hazards in order to issue the work permit
- Exercises: analysis of the working place by the identification of the job related hazards and of a certain work in a specific time (no routine activities)
- Work permit for different activities: preparing the work permit, documenting and registration of the work permit
- Exercises: Issuing the work permit for certain works

Methods
- Theory: Exposure explanation, conversation,
- Practical: exercises, casework analysis

Competences acquired
- Accumulating new data, information and knowledge in occupational health and safety
- Learn about jobs requiring work permits
- Learn about necessary measures for safe working
- Knowledge for documenting and preparing work permits
- Increasing professional competence and staff awareness concerning occupational health and safety and obligations regarding the safe operations of the plants

Trainer
has high specialization and rich experience in both Adult Training and theoretical and practical activity in the field of Health and Safety

Date / City
N/A

Contact
TÜV RheinlandRomânia SRL
103-105 Dorobanților Blvd.
010561 Bucharest
Tel.: +4 021 318 88 34/ 35
Fax: +4 021 318 88 36
academia@ro.tuv.com

www.tuv.com/academy-ro