Health and safety - Environmental Awareness

Stay Informed, Stay Safe.

Understand and enforcement of environmental laws. Knowledge of environmental pollution, hazardous chemicals and waste. General knowledge of environmental management system according to ISO 14001.

Target Group
The course is appropriate for all those involved in hazardous, chemicals and waste related operation, including all levels of operative, supervisors and management.

Duration
- 3 days (24 hours) - one hour training session it’s equal with 45 minutes

Content
- National and European environmental legislation:
  - general requirement for environmental protection, environmental permitting
  - legal requirement on air pollution, climate change
  - legal requirement on water pollution
  - legal requirement on hazardous substances
  - legal requirement hazardous and non
  - legal requirement soil and subsoil
- Pollution, hazardous chemicals and waste:
  - Sources of environmental pollution - air, water, soil, subsoil, flora, fauna and neighbors communities,
  - Information on specific pollutants activities, characterization of hazardous chemicals and hazardous waste and hazardous
  - Ways to reduce pollutants at the source by applying various specific technology, best practice guides, work instructions, prevent environmental damage
  - Methods of management of chemicals and wastes generated
  - Environmental Management Systems:
    - General knowledge on specific standards of environmental management
    - Presentation of ISO 14001:2004 - Environmental Management Systems. Requirements with guidance for use
    - Identification of environmental aspects and environmental impact assessment
    - Establishing and monitoring of environmental objectives
    - Environmental issues in the context of ISO 14001, the improvement activities

Methods
- Theory: Exposure explanation, conversation
- Practical: exercises, case studies

Competences acquired
- Accumulation of new data and information on environmental legislation in Romania and in the EU, knowledge of legislation applicable to the activities undertaken, knowledge modality approach to legislative documents
- Understanding Environmental responsibilities, management of hazardous chemicals, hazardous and non-hazardous waste
- Acquiring data and information on sources of environmental pollution factors air, water, soil, subsoil, flora, fauna and neighbors communities
- Acquiring data and information on hazardous chemicals, hazardous and non-staff environmental awareness to reduce environmental pollution at source and prevent environmental damage
- Gaining new knowledge on ISO 14000 series of standards
- Develop staff capacity to implement, maintain and improve the specific requirements of the environmental management system ISO 14001
- Acquiring knowledge on how to analyze an environmental pollution and establish corrective and preventive measures to reduce, eliminate and prevent the occurrence of environmental pollution
- Increased professional competence and awareness of environmental management personnel and obligations safe operation of facilities

Trainer
has high specialization and rich experience in both Adult Training and theoretical and practical activity in the field of Health and Safety - Environmental Awareness

Date / City
N/A

Contact
TÜV Rheinland România SRL
103-105 Dorobanților Blvd.
010561 Bucharest
Tel.: +4 021 318 88 34/ 35
Fax: +4 021 318 88 36
academia@ro.tuv.com

www.tuv.com/academy-ro